The drawings will be made through spheres numbered 0 (zero) to 9 (nine), contained in a container intended for that purpose, from which as many spheres will be extracted as necessary to form the numbers that will indicate the winning numbers.

In each extraction, the 1st (first) sphere to come out will correspond to the number of units, the 2nd (second) will correspond to the number of tens, the 3rd (third) to the number of hundreds, and so on. If the number that comes out is not an assigned number, the drawing will be repeated.

For each prize one permanent Client and two substitute Clients will be drawn, in order of extraction. The first alternate will receive the prize in the absence of a claim or waiver by the permanent Client and the second alternate will receive the prize in the absence of a claim by the first alternate.

Each Client, effective or alternate, may enter the next month's draw, if he/she meets the defined invoicing criteria.
